

Title:

8 Tips For Professional Quality Face Painting

Word Count:

513

Summary:

Kids of all ages love to have their faces painted (especially the younger ones!), so it's the

With this in mind, I've prepared a few tips for people just starting out in face painting. Here

1) If you're painting a design that needs a large area to be covered with paint, use a sponge

Keywords:

face painting

Article Body:

Kids of all ages love to have their faces painted (especially the younger ones!), so it's the

With this in mind, I've prepared a few tips for people just starting out in face painting. Here

1) If you're painting a design that needs a large area to be covered with paint, use a sponge

2) Always let the first color dry before you start painting on a second! If you forget to wait

3) Make sure you know what you want the finished face to look like. Don't mak it up as you go

4) If you're not good at painting freehand yet, don't be afraid to use a stencil. You can get

5) If you want something faster than stencilling, why not try temporary tattoos? Make sure the

6) If you have a line of kids ready to have their faces painted, ask them to be thinking about

7) Remember to have a mirror with you at all times so you can show the person what you have pa

8) Professional face paint and stage makeup can be quite expensive, especially if you're plann

They you go, that's my 8 tips a for professional face painting! I hope you found them useful.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>