

Title:

Abstract Art and I

Word Count:

753

Summary:

I pride in the feeling and reactions of my clients and viewers to my creations. I feel blessed

Keywords:

abstract art,black art,modern art,abstract,african art,canvas art,painting,modernism,modern af

Article Body:

I have always loved bright colors and movement, like dancing its healing, relaxing fulfilling

My subject varies based on my emotion and statement but my love for colors is constant. In spi

People see different forms or images in abstract art, the depth of what you actually see when

A selection of different dark hues, shapes and forms may give various impressions to different

To me, my work section is an intimate moment between I, canvas and colors. At this creative mo

I enjoy the inclusion and deletion of space. The handling of space or the illusion of space is another powerful element in the artist's mind. If you are drawn into a ya

The overall composition or design of my painting or sculpture is created to guide the viewer's

I must admit, most of my figurative compositions is a celebration of womanhood, which I am ver

I pride in the feeling and reactions of my clients and viewers to my creations. I feel blessed

Energy is the life force that is present in all good art. This is not something that is easily

You are welcome into my world of abstract wall art or modern art, relax and let your eye leisu

Come, come up close and explore the intricacies of brushstrokes, spatula- strokes, paint thick

Take your time. My artwork cannot be understood and appreciated in a ten second glance. Allow

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>