

Title:

Basic Web Design Tips

Word Count:

464

Summary:

To put it simply if your navigation is too complicated and people don't understand how to get

Keywords:

tips,web,design,webdesign

Article Body:

Don't bother with splash pages.

A splash page is normally a pointless page people put on their websites as an introduction. Th

Keep your navigation simple.

To put it simply if your navigation is too complicated and people don't understand how to get

Keep your paragraphs reasonable readable lengths.

Although having lots of relative and informative content on your website is good, it is a bad

Use CSS for style.

Make sure your text is readable by using a standard font which is compatible with other system

Test how your site looks in other web browsers

When you are building your site and still in the web design stage it is important to check how

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>