Continuing on from 2005 into 2006

At the Majestic Theatre, Phantom of the Opera continues to break attendance and ticket sales records.

At the St. James Theatre, The Producers opened in 2005 and continues to enjoy sold out performances.

The Color Purple opened at the Broadway Theatre on December 1, 2005, and has been sold out ever since.

Other plays that broke records are Beauty and the Beast, Doubt, Jersey Boys and The Lion King.

Coming in 2006

Mary Poppins, the extremely popular 1964 Walt Disney film, has made its way to Broadway. Performances are expected to be sold out.

The Wedding Singer will open on April 27, 2006 at the Al Hirshfeld Theatre. This musical is based on the 1981 film.

Tarzan, another popular movie, is set to open on Broadway during the month of March. It is the first Broadway production of a Disney movie.

On March 12, 2006, Ring of Fire, a musical tribute to country legend Johnny Cash, opens at the Broadway Theatre.

Broadway's success in 2005 has rolled over into 2006. As many as 30 new shows are slated to open in 2006.
