

Title:

How Did They Do That? Types Of Magic Tricks

Word Count:

769

Summary:

There are many kinds of magic tricks, but most fall into one of a few categories. Oftentimes,

While no type of magic is particularly easy, some types are common for beginning magicians, su

Keywords:

Article Body:

There are many kinds of magic tricks, but most fall into one of a few categories. Oftentimes,

While no type of magic is particularly easy, some types are common for beginning magicians, su

Magic is based on illusion and mystery, and all types of magic tricks employ this mystery. Thi

What types of tricks do magicians perform? The following list is a basic overview of magic tri

Sleight of hand tricks are those that involve skilled hand movements where objects seem to app

Sleight of hand tricks are used with a variety of objects, including card, coins, balls, and c

Illusions are those where the seemingly impossible becomes possible. Some of the better known

Escape magic is just as it sounds. The most famous escape artist was Harry Houdini, who perfor

Mentalists are another form of magicians who appear to read the minds of strangers. In front o

How and where magicians perform varies a great deal as well. Street magic, close-up magic, and

Close-up magic is performed indoors or out, and often involves such things as card or coin tri

Finally, stage magic is just as it sounds--magic performed onstage. These magic tricks date ba

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>