

Title:

Learning The Tricks: Rope Tricks

Word Count:

707

Summary:

Rope tricks rely on the illusion you give to your audience that you're doing something to the

Here is one classic rope trick that never fails to amaze children and adults alike. It's called

Keywords:

magic, rope, tricks

Article Body:

Rope tricks rely on the illusion you give to your audience that you're doing something to the

Here is one classic rope trick that never fails to amaze children and adults alike. It's called

You will need sharp scissors for cutting the rope. The rope should be about 2 meters in length

Show your audience your rope. Start telling your story while passing it around. Tell a few jokes

You should do a cat-shank knot on each end. If you don't know how to do this, just put one end

Tighten the knots in place and show to the audience that you have divided the rope into three

Now here is where the illusion starts. Yes, you will cut the rope but what you're cutting is t

If you have done this correctly, your audience will just think that you've cut the rope and is

Say to your audience now that you're going to repair your rope. While grasping with both of yo

Remember that part of the illusion in this trick is the story you are going to tell. Once you

Another tip is to research more variations of this trick. This trick has been done for a long

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>