

Title:

What type of magician can I hire?

Word Count:

480

Summary:

There are various types of magic and magicians. Most magicians now specialise in a few areas of

Here is a general guide of what types of magician are available for a predominately adult audience

Keywords:

Article Body:

Are you thinking of hiring a magician? Have you hired one before?

Do you know what type you want?

There are various types of magic and magicians. Most magicians now specialise in a few areas of

Here is a general guide of what types of magician are available for a predominately adult audience

Close-up magic/ strolling / mix and mingle/ table magic can often be seen at cocktail parties,

Cabaret magic is a great way for a large or small audience to see some bigger or more involved

More recently mind readers have once again become very popular. Whilst some will include comedians

If you are looking for larger, flashy magic then it is ideal to hire an illusionist. An illusionist

Cabaret magic acts last anywhere between 10 minutes to an hour and normally perform for audiences

Corporations and companies are hiring magicians more and more to perform at Trade Shows and exhibitions

It is always worth checking the credentials of the magician you are hiring. What is their track record?

For further details and information contact Nick Reade

<http://www.nickreade.com>

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>