

Title:

10 Time-tested, Battle-Tested Blog Traffic Techniques

Word Count:

304

Summary:

Follow these 10 blog traffic strategies and your blog just might be the next Engadget, TechCrunch, or Digg.

Keywords:

blog traffic, traffic, blog, blogs, blogging, money, make money

Article Body:

1. Blog Regularly - many of the top blogs post 10-20 times per day.
2. Create Authority Articles - instead of blogging frequently, post less often but focus on creating high-quality, authoritative content.
3. Comment on Other Blogs - do not keyword spam in these, but rather use your own name and add value to the conversation.
4. Link Out Frequently to Industry Leaders - show some linklove to other bloggers in your niche.
5. Participate in Blog Carnivals - these are a way for bloggers within a niche to get together and share their content.
6. Do Guest Posts - not just for A-List bloggers, but B-List and beyond. Be sure to work up some connections.
7. Article Marketing - chances are, you're reading this via a site that syndicated this article.
8. Social Digging/Mixxing - join sites like Digg, Mixxx, Bumpzee, etc. and encourage your users to submit their content.
9. Social Bookmarking - join del.icio.us, Furl, Wink, Backflip, etc and submit your popular articles.
10. Use Great Headlines - okay, which sounds better "Some Ways to Get Readers", or "10 Time-tested Blog Traffic Techniques"?
