Mobile document shredding service companies come to the physical location of your business and shred your documents.

What are the benefits of mobile shredding service?

- * Containers: Many shredding companies furnish nice looking steel locking containers for use in your office.
- * Certification: You may get a "Certificate of Destruction". While this certificate doesn't protect you from identity theft, it does provide a record of destruction.
- * Ease Of Use: Why risk transporting tons of documents off-site when you can witness the documents being shredded on-site?
- * Unrecoverable: The professional process used by mobile shredding companies makes it impossible to recover your documents.
- * Affordable: It can cost only pennies per pound to shred business documents.
- * Verified Firsthand: Company personnel can witness the shredding is done on-site. You don't have to trust a shredding company's word.
- * Less time consuming: Shredding these documents by hand would waste valuable employee-hours.

Mobile shredding is probably the easiest, most secure, and most rest freeway of disposing of documents.
