

Title:

Best Merchant Services

Word Count:

371

Summary:

A High-risk merchant account is a merchant account service provided to internet merchants that

Keywords:

Merchant Account, best merchant account, internet merchant accounts

Article Body:

A High-risk merchant account is a merchant account service provided to internet merchants that

Characteristically, it's very hard for high risk and non-US businesses to obtain a merchant ac

Credit card processors are likely to reject you if your business is considered high-risk. The

Examples of high risk merchant accounts include pharmaceuticals, telemarketing, infomercials,

High risk merchant accounts are available with international banks. A merchant has to do the f

1. Incorporated in the bank's jurisdictions (this requirement is based on credit card operating
2. Have 6 months of existing processing history (preferable the last 6 months)
3. Chargebacks in the last 6 months must be less than 1 %.
4. Pay the required set up fees
5. Provide principal's passport, business incorporation documents - some jurisdictions require
6. The merchant website has to be in compliance to Visa and MasterCard requirements

These merchant accounts can also be classified as offshore high risk merchant accounts, intern

The other option if you do not have processing history and you do not want pay the expensive o

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>