

Title:

Business Opportunities - 9 Things To Look For

Word Count:

829

Summary:

If you are considering striking out and starting a new business, you have probably been invest

Any business opportunity worth considering will either have a track record that you can invest

Keywords:

home based business opportunity, making money

Article Body:

If you are considering striking out and starting a new business, you have probably been invest

Any business opportunity worth considering will either have a track record that you can invest

How long has the business opportunity been in business? - Before investing time and money in m

If it is a new concept that has not been proven in the marketplace, you have no assurance that

Does the company have a fixed address and phone number? - This may seem obvious to you, but th

Does the business opportunity have some successful members you can talk to? - Most business op

How much initial investment is required? - In many cases a proven business opportunity with a

What you have to determine is whether a specific business opportunity has a successful track r

What is the realistic income potential of the business? - Have a careful look at the numbers a

Are there extra fees such as yearly or monthly subscription fees, shipping costs, or minimum p

Who controls the money? - When you generate sales for the business opportunity what assurance

Does the business opportunity supply marketing materials and person-to-person mentoring? - One

How much control of your new business will you have? - Be clear on who owns the business, and

The ideal business opportunity is one that is offered by a stable company with a proven track

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>