Article Body:
Entity structuring is the use of limited partnerships, limited liabilities, and corporations.
1. Bullet-proofing your assets so that the bad guys are worse off if they try and take them.
2. Slashing your taxes so that they are within single digits.
3. Protecting your privacy and building lasting wealth.

Let me explain how this works with the following example:

A case study: My friend Patrick grew up with the family business. His family sold expensive boats.
1. Limited Partnerships: separate legal entities. They separate your personal assets from business.
2. Limited Liability: similar to Limited Partnerships as they form a wall between you and the business.

These two power tools include a built-in charging order that does not apply to your typical ^S

In summary: They can not touch your assets because you have protected them. They can not receive
