

Title:

Finder Fees Interview With Tyler G. Hicks

Word Count:

333

Summary:

Tyler G. Hicks, the president of International Wealth Success Inc., is the author of many wealth

1. What does a finder do?

A finder brings together a need and a source for an individual or company. For example, an oil

Keywords:

FINDER FEES, FINDERS FEE, FINDER

Article Body:

Tyler G. Hicks, the president of International Wealth Success Inc., is the author of many wealth

1. What does a finder do?

A finder brings together a need and a source for an individual or company. For example, an oil

Another example is finding a suitable lender for a loan; this is the most common finder fee situation.

2. How are finder fees calculated?

The starting point is five percent of the amount of the find, whether it is for loans, property

3. Is finding better suited as a full-time or part-time business?

Finder fees are more often a secondary, supplementary, on-the-side source of income earned in

4. What businesses or situations are especially conducive to earning finder's fees?

The raising of money as well as the finding of real estate, rare minerals and unusual materials

5. What are the best areas for earning finder's fees for someone just starting out?

Finder fees for the raising of money is the best area for beginning wealth builders. The need

6. Where do you find finder fee opportunities?

Read and advertise in such publications as International Wealth Success Newsletter, The New York

7. What advice would you give someone who wants to start earning finder fees?

Don't take advance fees. Pick an area in which you want to work, by type of product or situation.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>