Article Body:

Make money at home, Google Adsense, is one of the most popular ways to create passive income. Instead, Google Adwords allows to make advertise on Google search engine, so your ad may appear. What's happens when an advertiser signs up for a Google Adwords account. Well, it can create a banner ad. The best way of this business is that advertise pay only when customers click on the banner ad. In this brief introduction I walk you through the key features of what looks to be a great affair.

Step 1) Sign up for an Adsense account. All you have to do is enter your website URL, and your account ID.

Step 2) Now it's time to configure your own Adsense banner (layout size and color scheme). Adsense provides a variety of banner sizes and colors. According to the Adsense policy, users can put up to three ad units on each page, and up to three ad units per page.

Step 3) What colour palettes are the most successful? If you want the biggest revenue impact from your ads, you should use a color scheme that is visually appealing and easy to read.

Step 4) Alternate ads allow you to use your ad space in the event that Google is unable to serve an ad.

Step 5) Give in mind, any method that artificially generates clicks or impressions on your Google Adsense account.

Best way to make money at home is , get any good adsense ready websites, package if you don't have one.
