Garage Sale Hints for Displaying Your Merchandise

Garage sales are a common thing from early spring until just before the winter snows begin to

One of the most common mistakes that people make is in the way that they display the items that

Once your tables are set up either inside the garage a few days before the sale or outside on

It is really critical that you don't simply put everything out randomly, in big piles, or scattered

If you can keep people from rummaging about, in, and underneath your carefully organized display

- No clothes should be thrown on the ground
- Small items should not be placed in boxes under the tables
- Everything for sale should be displayed when the sale opens
- Group items by price.
- Divide the tables into areas for different price ranges and put a sign up letting people know
- The arrangement should make it easier for your customers to find what they need, what they want

These garage sale hints should help first-timers to have everything run smoothly. Just be sure
