

Title:

How Computers Are Taking Over The Work Place! No Where Is Safe!

Word Count:

523

Summary:

See how computers are monitoring our every movement, even at work!

Keywords:

Industrial computer enclosures, computer cabinets, computer enclosures, printer cabinets, prin

Article Body:

When the computer was initially produced, it was for a select few, now almost everyone you tal

Computers have developed so fast it is mind boggling, the computers had limited capabilities,

The programmers created software, enabling computer manufacturers to build faster computers, t

Now, in 2008, more and more manufacturers are using the standard computer we use at home, for

When you take a standard computer or even a standard laser printer and put it in an office env

#1. How is the information on the factory floor going to be collected? The problem then arises

#2. How is the computer going to be powered? The solution is the electrical circuit has to be

The solution is to have the data and power cables in separate basket trays, providing they are

#3. Damage to the computer monitor ~ this could be expensive as well as hazardous, if the area

#4. If any dust or fluid gets on to the hard disc, this will result in loss of data, so image

Now the software programmers have created, allows businesses to see in ^real time~ how profita

Most manufacturers have decided that as part of the investment in the shop floor data collecti

They are now installing standard computers in <a href="http://www.pcenclosures-direct.com/pcca

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>