

Title:

My Identity Was Stolen Because Of Someone Else's Mistake

Word Count:

1086

Summary:

A true story about a financial organization losing my personal financial information - Identity

Keywords:

Identity Theft, Bank Lost My Information, Computer Stolen, Mortgage Company Theft, Credit Rep

Article Body:

Giving Total Strangers Your Personal Information

How often would you say you trust total strangers with some of your most confidential informat

My social security number;

Birth date;

Tax Identification number;

Bank account numbers;

Medical information;

Checking account number

Just to name the top few forms of personal identification and confidential information. The li

My doctors office;

Banks that have issued me credit cards;

Computer stores (Best Buy, CompUSA, CDW, Circuit City);

Online music purchases through Wal-Mart (Formerly Liquid Audio);

Restaurant staff;

Hospitals;

Medical procedure companies (X-ray's, Ultra-sounds,....

And many more...

Be careful When Giving Your Credit Card Number Over The Phone

It seems like almost everyday someone is asking me for my social security number. I think most

I recently ordered Italian food for dinner from one our favorite local restaurants. Every time

To share another, more serious experience with you here is something that happened to me in ju

When Should A Company Notify You That Your Personal Information Has Been Stolen?

The letter indicated that they were just notifying me now because law enforcement asked that t
I know I'm not the only person that has these little "moments". My New Years resolution this y

I share this information with you for several reasons. First, in the computer security busines

Conclusion

Don't for one minute think that identity theft or fraud can't happen to you. In fact, I would

You may reprint or publish this article free of charge as long as the bylines are included.

Original URL (The Web version of the article)

<http://www.defendingthenet.com/NewsLetters/MyIdentityWasStolenBecauseOfSomeoneElsesMistake.htm>

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>