

Title:

Removing Viruses From Your Computer

Word Count:

656

Summary:

One of the biggest threats that computer users are facing today is the probability of a virus

Keywords:

virus, viruses, computers, spyware, antivirus

Article Body:

One of the biggest threats that computer users are facing today is the probability of a virus

There is no one set of instructions you can follow to deal with a computer virus because all v

Active and inactive viruses:

A virus is usually located in a file, and it can be in one of these two states: active and ina

Identify the virus:

There is a webpage for every virus that has ever been identified by anti-virus companies, that

The Symantec Antivirus Research Center Online Encyclopedia or the McAfee Virus Information Sea

Using Anti-virus Software:

Once the virus has been identified, the best thing to do next is to run an anti-virus software

Most anti-virus software run periodical, scheduled or manual scans on your computer according

Protect yourself from future threats:

Once you have removed the virus(es), it would be a good time to make sure your computer is pro

1. Make sure the anti-virus software on your computer is always up-to-date
2. Run real-time protection if your anti-virus has the feature (most anti-virus software do)
3. Do not download or run any suspicious or unrecognized email attachments or file from the int
4. Always run your anti-virus and scan any removable storage Medias before using them

Contact technical support:

If you can't solve the problem yourself, you should contact technical support immediately by p

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>