

Title:

The Email Alternative: Using An Extranet For Online Document Sharing

Word Count:

355

Summary:

Why is an extranet better than email for sharing documents? The answer is simple: email is per

Most e-mail programs provide little ~ if any ~ effective way to prioritize your messages and a

With an extranet, all project related documents are automatically captured within a folder ded

Keywords:

extranet, intranet, document, collaboration, software, solution, management, online, web, share

Article Body:

Why is an extranet better than email for sharing documents? The answer is simple: email is per

Most e-mail programs provide little ~ if any ~ effective way to prioritize your messages and a

With an extranet, all project related documents are automatically captured within a folder ded

Not mixed in with the latest joke circulating around the office.

In addition, an extranet can handle any size document. With e-mail, you run the risk of large

Sharing a power point presentation with a group is a perfect example. With email, you have to

Using an extranet, the presentations can be sent at the same time, all intact, automatically f

And everyone has access at the same time.

Many extranets make it even easier, using automatic email alerts that inform the recipients th

An extranet assures that important documents get to the right place, ready for instant respons

One final point. Many extranets are secured with 128 bit encryption, the same protection used

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>