Title:
Color and You and Your Wardrobe

Word Count:
549

Summary:
Wearing the right colors for you, can build your confidence to where you may feel you can take

Keywords:

Article Body:
When you are sewing for yourself, selecting fabric is so important and selecting the colors to

Not all of us can afford to have our colors done, but you can experiment with this.

When in a fabric store, take a bolt of fabric to a mirror, put it up to your face, more across

If it is your color, your skin should look a very good color, you wil look healthy and your ey

You can do this with what you have in your wardrobe right now.

All colors have undertones, and the color experts have classified them for fashion as "warm" a

To determine if you are a silver or a gold, place the metals one at a time against your skin a

If you like a particular color and you don't think it fall into your colors, this may not be t

Most colors have an undertone, these undertones are what determines whether the color is "your

Colors have a warm undertone or a cool undertone. If you want to wear that color you love, the

You will have a "power" color too.  The power colors are mainly  black, navy, grey and brown.

So try navy or brown, once again if the color drains from your face, don't wear it.

Once you have established your power color, when you really want to make a statement, go for t

If you can afford to have your colors done, then I would suggest you do just that.  Knowing yo

I'm not sure if they are still doing it, but Gract Cosmetics have fully trained color consulta

The color consultants are listed in the yellow pages too.

Have some fun finding your colors, watch your confidence grow.