

Title:

Afghanistan: NATO's Classic Self-Defeating Exercise

Word Count:

1045

Summary:

A few days after it was announced that Afghanistan's opium production may well exceed 53% of

Keywords:

NATO, Titles, Land Reforms, Mullahs, Taliban, Al Qaeda, Drugs, War on Terror, Myth.

Article Body:

If you think that you are aware of what's going on in Afghanistan today, think again. The ve

A few days after it was announced that Afghanistan's opium production may well exceed 53% of

An Afghan volunteer supporting NATO's drug eradication programmes was a bit more precise whe

In 1978, there were hardly any poppy fields in Afghanistan, despite the fact that the trade in

After all, as a foreign economist visiting Afghanistan at that time concluded that 'without

But that vision of an economically resurgent Afghanistan was in tatters well before the reform

Today, twenty years later, the issue of land titles is mired in even greater confusion. Some o

Not that Afghanistan's landholding ratios by themselves are alarming by third-world standar

But wait. There are a few more depressing statistics which you need to be aware of. The wholes

Just do the maths, and figure out the phenomenal impact Afghan poppies are having on an entire

Are those so-called religious extremists 'Al Qaeda and the Taliban' simply glorified drug tr

The second set of questions must be addressed with an elevated degree of seriousness. Who else

Without comprehensive answers to a series of fundamental and disturbing questions, talk of Afg

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>