

Title:

Don't Be Held Hostage By The Price Of Gasoline

Word Count:

338

Summary:

It seems everywhere you go these days, at least in the US, the conversations are about the price of gasoline. No wonder, since it's broken the $3.00 a gallon barrier and is causing a lot of people real hardship. I'm old enough to remember the gas lines of the 1970's when a similar situation occurred. At that time, I was one of the two smartest people I've known - my wife, Georgia, being the other. In addition to being one of the two smartest people I've known - my wife, Georgia, being the other...

Keywords:

money, finance, gasoline, budgeting, debt

In addition to being one of the two smartest people I've known - my wife, Georgia, being the other... One day, in the midst of soaring gas prices, Irving went out and bought a new Cadillac, a car that was a gas guzzler. I asked him if he had lost his mind, buying a gas guzzling car when gas prices were at an all time high. "James," he answered, "if the price of gas goes up, I'll just figure out how to make more money." Talk about a prosperity mindset! What a great outlook. Irving knew he was capable of creating his own income. This is the real key to living a prosperous life. Be in control of your income. First, realize that your income comes from God and is not dependent on the economy. If you believe that, then, develop additional streams of income to supplement whatever else you're doing. If you have a business, if you're already in business, it may mean adding new revenue streams to your existing product line.
