

Title:

Drafting a will

Word Count:

707

Summary:

As one progresses to the threshold of old age, worries and anxieties seem to grip more tightly

Keywords:

lawyer, living, will, assets, financial

Article Body:

As one progresses to the threshold of old age, worries and anxieties seem to grip more tightly

Often the thought of making a will seems perturbing to people. They think that they are and will

There are several merits to making a will-

- Allows you to follow your choice whatever you have accumulated throughout your life should
- Good Bye disputes 'Money makes the Mare go' it is right that the glimmer of wealth can
- The Veiled reaches the Safe Hands there are certain secret riches or assets that people
- Can replace tears with smiles a properly formulated Will that takes care of all your needs
- Last but not the least, Wills are not just meant to benefit your survivors after your

The Other Key Points

- Any 18 year old or above can draft a Will. But Wills are actually meaningful in case of
- There are different types of Wills and so separate ways to draft them. Before formulating
 - i) Holographic Wills- a legal document handwritten by the Testator and also signed in the
 - ii) Legal Will- is that document which is signed by two witnesses and is prepared by a lawyer
 - iii) Living Wills-those that give you the opportunity to the kind of medical care and assistance
 - iv) Self ~Proved Will- has certain terms and conditions forwarded by the State. This Will
 - v) Ethical Wills- not a legal Will but a personal assessment of one's values, beliefs etc

vi) Living Trusts

- These different Wills have respective ways to formulate them and other requirements li
- Take some time to think about the beneficiaries, executor and the assets you want to b

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>