

Title:

How To Save Money On Gas

Word Count:

786

Summary:

Gas prices just keep going up, and our wallets keep decreasing in size. This how-to will teach

Steps

1. Take out a credit card. Some credit cards offer gas savings when you use the card for purch
- 2 Get a gas membership card. Look for membership benefits. In addition, department...

Keywords:

cash,money,finance,debt,credit

Article Body:

Gas prices just keep going up, and our wallets keep decreasing in size. This how-to will teach

Steps

1. Take out a credit card. Some credit cards offer gas savings when you use the card for purch
- 2 Get a gas membership card. Look for membership benefits. In addition, department and grocery
3. Give your car a good tune up. While giving your car a tune up won't actually save you money
4. Check the WWW for deals. Web sites let you find the best deals in your area.
5. Buy a hybrid car. Not only do hybrid cars give you immediate savings at the pump, the U.S.
6. Turn off the AC. Running the car's air conditioning puts extra strain on your car's engine.
7. Use the cheaper stuff. Most modern cars run just as well with the cheap gas as they do with
8. Don't fill the tank when prices are higher. Gas suppliers and gas station owners can charge
9. Don't drive. Don't drive when you don't absolutely have to. Carpooling, walking, taking the
10. Check the tire air pressures weekly. Buy an inexpensive manual air pump and an accurate ti
11. Drive at a consistent speed and keep the windows up tight. Keeping the windows closed redu
12. Clean out any unnecessary items in your car. If you have heavy objects in your car that yo
13. Avoid leaving your car idle. If you are going to be stopped for more than one minute, you
14. Buy on cold days. Buy fuel on cold days and if you can, drive on the hot days. When you bu

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>