The specific ins and outs of how your Internet banking will work vary depending on which bank

To begin with, you have to register for Internet banking, if you didn't do it when you set up

Once you're in, you should be presented with a list of your accounts (if you have more than one)

To make a one-off payment, such as a bill payment or sending money to someone else's account,

Setting up regular payments is a little more complicated. Again, you need the numbers and amount
