

Title:

Planning to Buy Your Dream

Word Count:

526

Summary:

Lots of people are dreaming about that little cottage with the white picket fence or that mode

Keywords:

real estate, buying home

Article Body:

Lots of people are dreaming about that little cottage with the white picket fence or that mode

The dreams are endless, but the idea is all the same ~ owning your own home is a major milesto

Owning your own home is more than just the dream. There is a reality too it also. You have to

Here are five things you must do before you buy a home.

Create good credit

This doesn't just prepare you for buying a home, but also for all of your life. You should sta

The main things that will help your credit score is paying your bills on time and using your c

Save, save, save

The biggest advantage you can give yourself is as much of a down payment as possible. This sho

You should also recognize that you will have additional expenses in owning a home. A savings p

Make a budget

If you don't already have a budget, you need one. Look at all of your expenses and decide how

Don't forget that you will have utility costs and hookup fees, some maintenance, closing costs

Get help

Ask family members or friends what it is like to buy a home. They can be a great source of inf

Become emotionally prepared

Finances aren't the only thing that will stress you out. Emotions run high when buying a home.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>