

Title:

Saving Money With Government Auctions

Word Count:

311

Summary:

Government auctions are where items that various government agencies have seized are sold, oft

What items are for sale at government auctions?

Usually, big ticket items, such as vehicles, houses, land, boats, airplanes, computers, etc.

Where have the items come from?

Usually, the...

Keywords:

Article Body:

Government auctions are where items that various government agencies have seized are sold, oft

What items are for sale at government auctions?

Usually, big ticket items, such as vehicles, houses, land, boats, airplanes, computers, etc.

Where have the items come from?

Usually, the items have been seized by a government agency. Items might be seized in a raid, r

How are items sold?

Depending on the auction, items may be sold at an internet auction, at a fixed price, or at a

How can I find out about items for sale?

There are many ways to find out about items for sale. Searching the internet will provide you

Tips for buying at government auctions

Look carefully at items you wish to bid on or purchase. Items are almost always sold as is, me

If there is a preview for the auction you plan to attend, take advantage of it. In some cases,

What other auctions can I attend to save money?

You may also want to check out foreclosed property auctions. Items at these auctions have been

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>