

Title:

Bits of Pepper Spray Facts

Word Count:

557

Summary:

Bits of Pepper Spray Facts

Keywords:

news, blog, articles, pepper spray

Article Body:

Pepper spray is non-toxic, non-inflammable, legal self-defense equipment. The active ingredient

Capsaicin, the active ingredient, is oil extracted from the tissue of the cayenne pepper, which

What are the effects of pepper spray contents?

The immediate effects of pepper spray are as follows:

- * Temporary blindness
- * Tearing and burning sensation in the eyes.
- * Shortness of breath
- * Choking and coughing
- * Feeling of light-headedness
- * Confusion and disorientation

Is it Fatal? Pepper spray was not designed to be fatal and there are no questionable contents

Is pepper spray training required? It is not a standard set for people using pepper spray to a

What is the strength of pepper sprays? The standard pepper spray strength is 15% active ingred

Is this the best non-lethal self-defense weapon? We cannot tell exactly if this is the best ye

Is it safe to use? It is generally safe to use since it does not have long lasting effects and

What are restrictions for using pepper spray? For now, there are no established restrictions i

What must be done when the spray affects you? The affected area must be immediately rinsed wit

Is it the best solution? In actuality, it is not but this is rather dependent on the case. If

Children must be kept away from pepper spray since they are fond of playing with novelty items

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>