

Title:

Hot Sauce History ~ A Lip-smacking, Mouth-watering Story

Word Count:

492

Summary:

A brief history of hot sauce.

Keywords:

history of hot sauce, hot sauce, sauce, sauces, history

Article Body:

The hot sauce history is the history of enterprising men fired by the fiery chilly into crafting

Sauce historians have gathered information mainly from the labels on the hot sauce bottles how

The flaming hot sauce had a humble beginning in the form of cayenne sauces in Massachusetts wa

1849 is a landmark year in the history of hot sauce. The first sauce import took place in 1849

Colonel White prepared the world's first Tabasco sauce and advertised it. Hot sauce was now we

A variation of the hot sauce came out in 1860 when J. McCollick & Co. of New York City produce

But the hot sauce really captured the imagination of the public with Edward McIlhenny's ripene

1870 and 1906 are high watermarks in hot sauce history whence McIlhenny secured a patent on th

Hot sauce marketing broke new grounds with Chicago-based William Railton's 1877 advertisement

The legendary Poppie's Hotter 'n Hell Pepper Sauce had its moorings in south Louisiana under F

The success of the Tabasco hot sauce opened the floodgates to experimentation with various fla

These experimentations were not confined to only the entrepreneurs. Homemakers too were dabbling

The hot sauce juggernaut rolled on with David Pace's picante sauce, made in 1947 and Chris Way

Hot sauce history says that Los Angeles leads the way when it comes to hot sauce consumption,

Modern hot sauce history is replete with manufacturers like Sauces & Salsas Ltd, Le Saucier, t

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>