

Title:

Our Pleasant Meal At C&C Supper Club In Door County Wisconsin

Word Count:

554

Summary:

My husband, oldest son, and I had the pleasure of enjoying a meal at C&C Supper Club in Fish C

The building houses a supper club for dining along with a bar with games and live entertainmen

We were very hungry when we arrived so we went directly to the dining room to eat. We were off

Keywords:

Door County, Door County Wisconsin, Door County restaurants, place to eat in Door County

Article Body:

My husband, oldest son, and I had the pleasure of enjoying a meal at C&C Supper Club in Fish C

The building houses a supper club for dining along with a bar with games and live entertainmen

We were very hungry when we arrived so we went directly to the dining room to eat. We were off

The dinner entrees at the restaurant come with a choice of potato, soup or salad, and bread. I

One of our diners opted for soup with his meal and ordered the French Onion soup. He said it w

The other members of our dining party had salad instead of soup. The restaurant has 4 distinct

Two of us decided on the Alaskan King Crab Legs as our main entrée. They were a great choice.

The other member of our dining party had the surf and turf, of which there were several option

The bread that came with the meal was also very good. Our only complaint was that it was serve

For dessert one of our dining party had an ice cream drink, the restaurant's purple hooter whi

The meal, including dessert and beverages and tip was a little over $100 for three people and

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>