

Title:

Alcoholic Drinks and Health Issues

Word Count:

547

Summary:

Alcohol is a depressant that can act as a sedative drug and may slow down the nervous system.

Keywords:

diet, stress and anxiety, car accident

Article Body:

Alcohol is an important component of many element of several societies for many years. Many be
Alcohol is a depressant that can act as a sedative drug and may slow down the nervous

Despite the adverse effects of alcohol, many individuals still engage in drinking this

In addition to the health hazards of alcohol, studies show that almost many deaths amo
Studies show that in every thirty minutes, someone dies from an alcohol related car ac

Alcohol disorders amplify suicide and risk, at least one-third if individuals who have Consuming inappropriate amounts of alcohol puts individuals at risk for several health

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>