

Title:

Clean Fresh Air Required? Air Purifiers Are Your Answer

Word Count:

639

Summary:

Brief introduction of air purifiers, what are the types available and how they work.

Keywords:

air purifiers, air purifier, HEPA, Ionic, UV, clean air, asthma, allergy, air quality

Article Body:

If you are living in the city, chances are you will be tired of leaving the windows open to air

Natural Air Purifiers

How natural can one get? Remember the days living in the country where you get fresh pristine

The best natural way is to have living plants into your home! Plants are known to be capable of

Recommended common household plants known for being exceptionally good filters include Gerbera

Some people recommend burning candles, particularly beeswax candles, to work as a natural air

Another popular way to get rid of odors is to use spray air fresheners. Try to use the types n

The UV Air Purifier

Although you have the natural air purifiers in place with the plants and candles, they might n

Other harder to get rid odors include those caused by bacteria. Examples of odor-causing bacte

Bottomline is bacteria is the culprit, they caused these smells and hence you get rid of the s

Complexities of the technology aside, the ultra-violet light (UV) technology used in these air

There is another type of air purifiersystem which combines UV, HEPA and even ionizing filter t

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>