

Title:

Common Hearing Aid Myths

Word Count:

581

Summary:

MYTH: Hearing aids will cure hearing loss or restore a hearing impaired individual's hearing t

Keywords:

Hearing Aid

Article Body:

MYTH: Hearing aids will cure hearing loss or restore a hearing impaired individual's hearing t

TRUTH: No hearing aid will ever allow a hearing impaired individual to have normal hearing. A

MYTH: Hearing aids will resolve all of a hearing impaired individual's communication difficult

TRUTH: This is impossible, although hearing aids go a long way in helping a hearing impaired i

MYTH: Hearing aids will destroy residual hearing.

TRUTH: Since hearing aids are prescribed according to an individual wearer's specific hearing

MYTH: Smaller hearing aids have better technology.

TRUTH: Both larger hearing aids and smaller ones are equipped with cutting edge technology. T

MYTH: Hearing aids are not absolutely necessary for relatively minor hearing losses.

TRUTH: It is not advisable to put off obtaining hearing aids until hearing loss becomes a bigg

MYTH: Hearing aids will not be effective for some types of hearing losses.

TRUTH: Generations ago people with certain types of hearing losses, such as high frequency, we

MYTH: Babies can't be fitted with hearing aids.

TRUTH: Actually infants as young as a month old can be fitted with hearing aids. With the in

MYTH: It doesn't matter where hearing aids are purchased.

TRUTH: While buying hearing aids through mail order or off the internet may be less expensive,

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>