

Title:

Cyber-Bullying: Threat and Intimidation Online

Word Count:

550

Summary:

The article is about the growing social problem called Cyber-Bullying, which is the use of dig

Keywords:

depression, stress and anxiety, anxiety

Article Body:

Ahh...the Internet...the amazing portal to a vast world of information, entertainment, and eve

But even the Internet is not immune from misuse or abuse. Like other inventions of man, it t

In a survey done by Pew Internet and American Life, it was found out that at least 33% of teen

Online bullies use their computer and Internet skills to shock, intimidate, insult, and contro

Since surfing the Web can be done outside of school or out of the watchful eyes of teachers an

- Don't use your real name every time you sign up for a web service;
- Don't give personal information such as your gender, age, address, school etc.;
- Don't send photos or post photos on the Internet;
- As much as possible, avoid entering chat rooms. Most people who are in the chat rooms
- Keep a copy of the offending email. You may need the copy if you decide to take legal
- Never easily agree to meet with anyone that you just met online.

One of the worst things that can happen to a victim of online harassment or cyber-bullying is

It will take the joint effort of school authorities, parents, and the community as a whole to

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>