

Title:

5 Movies From Your Childhood To Share With Your Kids

Word Count:

317

Summary:

Brand new movies are great! It's so much fun standing in line at the theater, breathing in the

My children love watching the latest and greatest movies, but I just grin when I hear my child

Have you introduced your children to t...

Keywords:

Article Body:

Brand new movies are great! It's so much fun standing in line at the theater, breathing in the

My children love watching the latest and greatest movies, but I just grin when I hear my child

Have you introduced your children to the movies you enjoyed when you were younger?

Swiss Family Robinson (1960)

The Robinson family gets shipwrecked near an island. With hard work and togetherness, they bui

The Parent Trap (1961)

Twin daughters are raised not knowing about each other, each living with one parent. They unex

Mary Poppins (1964)

Mr. and Mrs. Banks are both so preoccupied with their own interests that their children, Jane

The Sound of Music (1965)

The hills are alive with the sound of music. Your home will be alive with the sound of music o

Annie (1982)

Oh, how we love Annie! The music, the dancing, the wealthy Mr. Warbucks, and a happy ending. I

These five movies are a must in every family library. Share the memories, and sing the tunes.

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>