

Title:

Air Purifiers Cleaning The Air

Word Count:

586

Summary:

The air we breathe is not what we can call pure. For this reason, air purifiers are so important

Keywords:

air purifier

Article Body:

The 21st Century has brought us many advances. The progress industry has been through changed

The air is the means of transportation - and consequently, the means by which microorganisms spread

Directly opposite to what many people think, it is not only the "outside" that offers danger to

What are we exposed to?

We are exposed to a lot of danger when we breathe. Asthmatic people suffer even more than people

It's not that hundreds of years ago, the air was safe. No, it was not. Allergens have always existed

Besides the pollution, we also have the allergens in the air. And the majority of these are the

In addition to that, bacteria and viruses as well as other types of microorganisms are constantly

How do we protect our loved ones?

Unfortunately, there aren't many things we can do in order to protect our family or our environment

The same hand that pollutes tries to clean. Industries have developed some air purifiers in order to

Air purifiers simply try to take from the air the allergens and some of the pollution. It's so

Techniques used

There are several techniques available for people who want to create a safe - or less dangerous

Some air purifiers use adsorbent techniques and electrostatic charges and ionizers. Some other

We cannot control what we breathe when we are in the street, but we can do something to avoid

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>