

Title:

America's Breadbasket: Crystal Meth

Word Count:

708

Summary:

We have property legislation regarding mold, and disclosure covering asbestos and radon, but o

Keywords:

methamphetamine, addicts, property, contamination, methlab

Article Body:

Methamphetamine is an addictive drug made in home labs. When taken by mouth, snorted, injected

As one addict explains, ^Sex became an endurance sport I couldn't get enough of -- I felt great

It's not enough that meth addicts lose brain cells but keep living happily ever after; it's th

We have property legislation regarding mold, and disclosure covering asbestos and radon, but o

Property owners are warned to exercise caution and use the safest possible cleaning practices

When they move on or the lab is closed by authorities, it takes a special team in moon suits a

The owner is left with contamination of absorbent materials such as carpeting, drapes and duct

The innocent victims of a meth lab are two: parents who are alcoholics or addicted to other d

The second innocent victim is the unsuspecting home buyer or renter who tries to live in an ex

Even burning these buildings to the ground will not save the land on which the lab was operati

Looking back, one can study a nuclear contamination map and see areas that cannot be inhabited

2006 Esther Smith

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>