A well-chosen hamper makes the perfect gift for anyone - for the family member who 'has everything

So how can you be sure you will be happy with your hamper supplier and that your recipients will

Top 10 tips for getting it right

1. If you're searching for hampers on the Internet use specific search terms - i.e. "luxury hamper"
2. If you still don't see what you are looking for, then maybe you should consider a bespoke hamper
3. Check the credentials of the supplier - i.e. how long have they been in business? Are they reliable?
4. If possible, order early - you may receive an early bird discount
5. Check the hamper contents list - if you want "store cupboard" items then your choice is vast
6. For large corporate orders ask to see a sample to ensure you are happy with what your client will receive
7. Shortlist your potential hamper suppliers and then scrutinise "like for like" hampers for value
8. Messages - check that names and personalised messages have been spelt correctly.
9. For bulk drops to offices ensure that a lorry can park outside the building. If you want your hamper delivered to a specific address ensure that the address is correct
10. If your hamper gift is to be a surprise delivery, make it VERY CLEAR to your supplier and recipient

A hamper is not just for Christmas!

A hamper can make an ideal gift for any occasion throughout the year. For example, instead of
