

Title:

Defending Your Home From Pests

Word Count:

745

Summary:

At the first site of a home invasion of bugs, don't run for the spray gun. First, learn a little

Keywords:

pest control, do it yourself pest control, pest control products, getting rid of pests, how to

Article Body:

At the first site of a home invasion of bugs, don't run for the spray gun. First, learn a little

The behavior of certain pests can help you eliminate them. For example, if your problem is cockroaches,

The pest may decide to avoid a showdown. Run them out of town by removing sources of food, water, and

Use baits first because they are usually clean and have little or no odor. However, you must place them

You may also want to try an organic solution that is less harmful to the environment and often

To get ready for the showdown, read the label first. And read all of it, so you will know how to use

If sprays are necessary, only use what is approved for home or indoor use and use only the recommended

Don't over do it. More is not better when it comes to chemicals in and around your home. Use the least

Don't forget to dispose of unused pesticides properly. You will find the disposal instructions on the

If your home has been invaded with pests, don't be fast on the trigger. Take a little time to

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>