

Title:

Drunk as a Skunk - Drink Driving

Word Count:

646

Summary:

Drink effects everyone in the same way issuing you a licence to KILL

Keywords:

Drink driving,booze consequences,life sentence,binge drinking,car keys,motorist,driver,lethal

Article Body:

Take a little double vision add a touch of dizziness, sprinkle in some clumsy, mix with slow r

This is a lethal cocktail of symptoms namely a death sentence for any motorist jumping behind

Taking the life out of living of an innocent pedestrian or leaving a parent without child can

Reality kicks in for the alcohol fuel filled driver when effect of the drink wears off

This person now has to face up to the consequences of their actions, where in some cases you w

Wisdom is the only word that springs to mind that I feel drinkers should heed, learn from the

Where is the justice

It seems unfair that the drink driver is behind bars for something that he/she can not remember

Sentenced for losing control of the mind, it just doesn't make sense the driver asks him/hers

The car is your life should you drive for a living, the car is a pleasure providing machine. T

But should the owner of the car jump behind the wheel while under the influence of alcohol the

Influenced by alcohol and the mad thoughts where you think you're the next Nigel Mansell on th

After abusing the consumption limit for the intake of booze. Drivers lose jurisdiction over th

Common sense saves lives, have a close friend or relative transport you to your chosen venue f

It may not be a life term prison sentence imposed on you by the judge, but it may as well be.

The biggest and best tip I can give to any drink driver is, when leaving the home for a night

Counselling help can be found on my Information page

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>