

Title:

Family - The Basic Social Unit

Word Count:

402

Summary:

Family is the basic social unit. Family represents people living together by ties of marriage,

Keywords:

family, parenting, children, babies

Article Body:

Family is the basic social unit. Family represents people living together by ties of marriage,

The parent-child relationship varies due to different cultures. One of the prominent forms is

Children who share one parent but not another are called `^half^brothers^` or `^half^sisters^`. Ch

A complex family involves more than two adults. It refers to any extended family or to polygam

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>