

Title:

Family Emergency Preparedness 2006

Word Count:

546

Summary:

Tips for family emergency preparedness for both man made and natural disasters.

Keywords:

family emergency preparedness, emergency preparedness, hurricanes, tornadoes, earthquakes, Katrina

Article Body:

Thought Hurricane season 2005 with Katrina and Rita was bad? Well get ready for 2006 as it will

As an emergency preparedness consultant featured on CNN and Fox News, I can assure you that if

First of all you need to have a water supply on hand for at least one week for each member of Next you need a supply of food that can be protected from rising water. You need to put it in

Next you need for EVERY member of the family to have a Preparedness Travel Backpack with: clot

You will need a well equipped first aid kit that also can be kept in one of the backpacks along

If you are traveling by vehicle, that vehicle should have FDA approved plastic containers for

Also make sure and have a family tent in the vehicle. How many people did you see during Hurri

Certainly you have fire extinguishers at home. Well do you also have one for each vehicle? If

You are going to need to have your food supplies mentioned above in BIG plastic containers tha

There is a lot more that you will need to know and it's all available at <http://www.uspreparedness.com>

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>