

Title:

First Aid: Something We All Need To Know

Word Count:

388

Summary:

First aid is a foundation of information that we all need to know. There are several types of

Keywords:

First aid

Article Body:

First aid is a foundation of information that we all need to know. There are several types of

First aid is a term given to the many various life saving techniques that the layperson can pe

First aid is often taught in a series of lessons that tell you to perform four steps whenever

First, assess what has happened. Determine if the patient is in need of being moved or if the

Then, assess the patient to see how well they are, if they can or should be moved and then act

Third, in first aid you will need to call for help. Use whatever means are necessary to get he

Finally, do the best you can to help the patient. In other words, do what you have been traine

There are many cases in which first aid will be necessary. Taking whatever steps you can to he

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>