

Title:

How To Choose A Christian Counselor

Word Count:

346

Summary:

Christian therapy as a profession is relatively new, having been practiced only over the last

Keywords:

christian counseling, christian therapy, christian counselor

Article Body:

Christian therapy as a profession is relatively new, having been practiced only over the last

Christian counseling is best done by someone with an advanced (Master's) degree trained in the

In order to choose the right Christian therapy professional for you, it's best to focus on:

- their education and training
- the role they believe therapy plays in the lives of their clients
- the way they plan to integrate biblical and relational truths into therapy
- their personal Statement of Faith or statement of a relationship with Christ
- whether you feel a connection with them
- how much you believe their expertise and personal character will help them in the practice of

Choosing the right Christian counselor is an important consideration on your way to continued

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>