

Title:

It's Time To Think About Comforters!

Word Count:

953

Summary:

When it get colder, you'll want a perfect comforter-here's how to get it!

Keywords:

comforters, comforter

Article Body:

If you're thinking about buying a comforter for your bedroom, don't shop without this informat

By saving yourself from some of the common mistakes made by bedding buyers, you will be much h

When choosing comforters, it is important to understand the materials used to construct the be

Feathers or down are commonly used as filling material. There's a really big difference betwee

Check the product information carefully to be certain of what the contents of the bedding you

However, people with allergies can have problems with either filler and may need to resort to Another fill that may be found in bedding is polyester fiber. This filling is not as luxurious

An important factor to consider when purchasing your bed covering is fill weight. Fill weight

The greater the fill weight, the more filling is contained in the bedding and therefore the mo

If you live in a cold climate and reduce your home's thermostat at night, you'll want to purch

If you live in a more temperate climate or want bedding for summer use, you will probably want

Fill power refers to the amount of space which 1 ounce of down or fill material covers. Becaus

The fill number 575 fill power means that 1 ounce of the filler covers 575 cubic inches of spa

If you live in a warm climate, you'll be happy with a much lower fill power. A fill power of 5

Thread count is a factor to consider as well. Especially with down/feather bedding, low thre

Higher thread counts of 330 or more provide a more dense fabric with a close weave that will p

The actual construction method of the shell of the bedding is also very important. Inexpensiv

This means that the bedding is divided into sections by sewing through the top and bottom and

Top quality bedding, which is more expensive but will last much longer, uses baffle box constr

Fabric is used to create walls inside the bedding in which the fill is placed. This provides t

For the very best bedding, be sure to look for the "closed baffle box" or "true baffle box" co

Care of your bedding investment is important too! Even if a luxury bedding item that contains

When large pieces of filled bedding get wet, they are simply too heavy for the home machine. W

For only a little more cost, you can insure that your bedding will last longer so you can enjoy

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>