

Title:

Making Your Home or Office Handicap Accessible

Word Count:

501

Summary:

It is important for people with disability whether temporary or permanent to continue their ev

Keywords:

electric scooters, electric scooter, electric mobility scooters

Article Body:

It is important for people with disability whether temporary or permanent to continue their ev

Home Tips:

Doors:

It should be wide enough to allow walker and wheelchair access. If the doorway is positioned

Bathtubs:

Bathtub and shower grab bars should be installed in order to provide support. You can also pl

Toilet seat:

The height can be customize and adapted from one individual to another. It can be replaced wi

Sinks and faucets:

Vanity cabinets may be removed from below the sink. Pedestal style sinks can provide more spa

Office Tips:

Office location:

The workplace must be located as near as possible to public transportation routes ~ subway sto

Parking space:

Persons with disabilities should be reserved with designated parking areas and properly marked

Buildings:

It should be visibly marked with suitably big and legible signage to prevent any difficulty fo

Travel path:

When there is a change in level of travel path inside or outside the building, elevators, ramp

Entrances:

Building entrances must have electric, automatic hinged or sliding doors except when existing

Rest rooms:

Its doors are recommended to be automatic. There should be at least 1 sink reachable to perso

The guidelines mentioned will not only provide our handicap friends with convenience but most

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1
Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>
Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>