

Title:

Memories of Grandfather's Billiard Room

Word Count:

424

Summary:

This article is a "slice of life" or a "walk down memory lane", recalling fond memories of time

Keywords:

billiards, shoot some stick, pool, snooker

Article Body:

I always loved that my Grandfather had a billiard room in his home. I used to spend a lot of

My Grandparents would entertain quite frequently, and they would regularly invite some of their

After dinner, Grandmother would be in the parlor room having tea and chatting with the other ladies

The ^lounge~ was a gorgeous and stately room. It had sixteen foot ceilings with stunning plaster

One night it was rather late and, again, I was unable to sleep. So I got out of bed and got dressed

We played a quick game, which I am sure he let me win, and when I finished my tea I went back to bed

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>