We have enjoyed our lives to the fullest even though experiencing ups and downs related to the

For the most part we feel safe within our town and trust in our local government to supply us

But recently, we have made a stunning discovery, and what scarred me and my husband the most is

You see, for the last 5 years, my kids have been attending services in a church that has made

So does the name Harold Joe Cain ring a bell?

Probably not because he has been flying under the radar most of his mediocre life.

But our church staff doesn't seem to pay much mind to any of the facts that he has sexually abused

Our Rock Of Restoration church would not comment on the matter for fear of creating a widespread

Public officials need to be informed and this needs to be brought out for the sake of the community

My husband and I have since left the church and are now actively looking for a place of worship
