

Title:

Plan Your Move: 6-8 Weeks Prior to Your Move

Word Count:

435

Summary:

Planning a successful move usually starts 8 to 6 weeks prior to the move date. The following a

Keywords:

6-8 Weeks, Prior, Move

Article Body:

Planning your upcoming relocation starts 8 to 6 weeks prior to your move date. This is when yo

Book Your Moving Date with a Moving Company.

Choosing the right moving company is a process that takes some time. You will have to compare

1. Origin and destination information including: address and all other aspects such as stairs
2. Packing services and packing supplies.
3. Unpacking services and debris removal
4. Accurate pick up and delivery dates.
5. Storage requirements
6. Any need for vehicle transportation.

What Goes and What Stays?

Whether you are moving locally or interstate, your moving cost will be determined according to

1. One great opportunity to make money is to sell old stuff in a garage sale.
2. It is always a good idea to help others and donate your old belongings to those who need it
3. Give away stuff to friends and family
4. Dispose of items that cannot be reused.

Packing and Packing Supplies

If you choose to pack yourself, this is the time to start gathering packing supplies.

You can purchase all these materials directly from your moving company. Most companies will al

Be sure to purchase boxes that are specially designed for moving and relocation to prevent any

For more information visit <http://www.moveeast.com>

Free guides are available

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>