

Title:

Swimming Pool Maintenance 101 - To Cover or Not to Cover

Word Count:

573

Summary:

Keeping your inground pool clean is actually easier than you think - even if you don't cover y

Keywords:

swimming pool cover, pool cover

Article Body:

Before I owned a pool I always thought that pool maintenance was going to be a real pain and t

Well, I was pleasantly surprised to find out that after our inground pool was installed, that

First we never invested in a pool cover. Since we live in SC we have a few months of 'cold' te

By not covering the pool, you save hundreds of dollars by not having to buy a pool cover every

By not covering the pool you also save the hassle of 'opening the pool' every spring. First, y

To combat the problem of debris (in an uncovered pool), we have a Polaris automatic pool clean

By not covering the pool but running the pump all winter long, you don't have to contend with

By not covering the pool, you can take a quick dip anytime you please since the water is alway in it, but more importantly, getting it balanced is as simple as taking a sample to be tested

The only other things that I do are 1.) Keep the chlorine reservoir full (or nearly full) with

Please keep in mind that we live in South Carolina. This type of pool care may not be appropri

To read about the next steps I take in getting the pool ready please go to www.keepyourpoolcle

This is a demo version of txt2pdf v.10.1

Developed by SANFACE Software <http://www.sanface.com/>

Available at <http://www.sanface.com/txt2pdf.html>